TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

These standard terms and conditions of sale (these “Terms and Conditions of Sale”) apply to any and all orders placed by original purchaser (“Purchaser”) for purchases of Circadian Light products or services (together, “Circadian Light Products”) from and after March 1, 2017 from Circadian ZirLight, Inc., a Delaware corporation doing business as Circadian Light (“Circadian”), whether or not such purchase is subject to a signed purchase order, distribution or other agreement between Circadian and Purchaser. Ordering Circadian Light Products from Circadian constitutes acceptance of the terms set forth herein, as such terms may have been updated through the date of such order. Any different, or additional terms in any purchase order, blanket instructions or other writing from Purchaser shall be deemed a material alteration hereof and are hereby expressly objected to and rejected and shall be of no force or effect. Commencement of performance or shipment shall not be construed as acceptance of any of Purchaser's terms and conditions which are different from or in addition to those contained in these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Course of performance or usage of trade shall not be applied to modify these Terms and Conditions of Sale.

ORDERS; CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS

All orders must be placed in writing and delivered directly to Circadian from the entity that will be liable for the payment of the order. Verbal orders or orders through a third party will not be accepted. No order is final as to Circadian until accepted by Circadian by written acknowledgement. All orders that are accepted by Circadian are subject to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. After acceptance, requests to cancel or change orders must be submitted in writing to Circadian. All requests are reviewed for approval before processing and are subject to any and all costs or expenses incurred by Circadian from such cancellation or change including, without limitation, costs for work performed and/or materials purchased by Circadian for Circadian Light Products. Hold orders may be accepted for informational purposes only. Procurement and production process will not be initiated, and delivery commitments will not be provided, without firm release dates.

PRICES

All prices represent those in effect at the time of quotation and are subject to change without notice. All prices are as stated in Circadian’s quote and specifically override any prices referenced in Purchaser’s purchase order. Unless prices are quoted as “firm” by an authorized representative of Circadian, Circadian reserves the right to invoice prices in effect at the date of shipment, regardless of any prior quote and regardless of whether notice was received by Purchaser. All prices and other terms are subject to correction for typographical or clerical errors.

SALES MATERIALS; SPECIFICATIONS

Any catalog, specification or price sheet or other similar documentation prepared by Circadian is strictly for the convenience of the user and shall not be deemed as an offer to sell. Circadian believes such documentation is complete and accurate at time of printing, but does not warrant that such documentation is error free. Circadian will not accept responsibility for any damages including labor charge backs in connection with errors of measurements, descriptions, applications, recommendations, etc.

Circadian Light Products will be shipped in accordance with the standard styles and sizes as described in Circadian's catalogs or, for special or made-to-order Circadian Light Products, in accordance with Circadian's drawings and specifications sheets. In the event of a conflict between Purchaser's written order and a Circadian drawing or specification sheet marked "approved" or the like, the Circadian drawing or specification sheet shall prevail. Circadian reserves the right to change details of design, materials, and finish at any time without written notice.

TERMS OF PAYMENT

Unless otherwise stated in Circadian's invoice or agreed to in writing by Circadian, payment for orders shipped to destinations in the United States shall be due by the 30th day following invoicing. The terms of payment are subject to review of Purchaser's credit by Circadian. Circadian shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to require cash payments in advance or a letter of credit or other assurance of payment satisfactory to Circadian as a condition to acceptance of any order or shipment of any Circadian Light Product. Unless otherwise agreed to by Circadian, payment shall be by check to be drawn on Purchaser's corporate account, by wire transfer to Circadian's account at a commercial bank designated by Circadian, or by Circadian's draw upon a letter of credit satisfactory in form and substance to Circadian. The requirement of a letter of credit is standard for shipments outside the United States, for special Circadian Light Products, and for F.O.B. factory orders. All payments by Purchaser shall be made in United States Dollars and shall be paid in full, without set-off, deduction or counterclaim.

TAXES AND GOVERNMENTAL CHARGES

Prices do not include any taxes or other governmental fees, charges or assessments, including, without limitation, value-added, sales, use or privileges taxes, required governmental withholdings or excise or similar taxes levied by any government, now or hereafter enacted. In Circadian's discretion, any such taxes, charges or withholdings may be added to the price for any Circadian Light Products or may be billed separately. Purchaser will pay all such taxes and charges, on or before their due dates. In the event, Circadian is required at any time to pay any such tax or charge, Purchaser will reimburse Circadian promptly on demand.

LATE CHARGES; COSTS

If Purchaser fails to pay in full without any set off or deduction any amount due to Circadian promptly when due, Circadian may recover, in addition to the payment due, interest thereon at a rate equal to the lesser of one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) per month or the maximum rate of interest allowable under applicable law. Purchaser shall be liable for all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Circadian in collecting or attempting to collect any and all overdue accounts. If Purchaser fails to pay any amount when due, in addition to any other rights or remedies available to Circadian at law or in equity, Circadian may discontinue the performance of services, discontinue the delivery of the Circadian Light Products, or deduct the unpaid amount from any amounts otherwise owed to Purchaser by Circadian under any agreement with Purchaser.

SECURITY INTEREST

Purchaser hereby grants to Circadian a purchase money security interest in the Circadian Light Products until all payments have been made. Purchaser shall sign any financing statements or other documents necessary to perfect Circadian's security interests in the Circadian Light Products. Where permitted by applicable law, Purchaser's signature on the quotation or on a purchase order issued as a result of the quotation gives Circadian the right to sign on Purchaser's behalf and file any financing statement or other documents to perfect Circadian's security interest in the Circadian Light Products.

PACKAGING AND HANDLING

Circadian shall determine the method of packaging for all Circadian Light Products. If Purchaser requires special packaging or handling, such request must be made in writing and charges for special packaging, handling, and delivery shall be added to the price of the Circadian Light Products. Unless specifically agreed to in writing, Circadian will not be responsible for the payment of any penalties or special handling charges relating to Circadian's failure to comply with Purchaser's special requirement for order processing, handling, packaging, shipping or invoicing.

SHIPMENT, DELIVERY AND TITLE

Circadian Light Products will be tendered and shipped FOB (Incoterms 2010) Circadian's manufacturing plant or warehouse and title to and risk of loss of the Circadian Light Products shall pass to Purchaser at such point. Purchaser shall obtain and pay for insurance covering such risks at such destination. Circadian will select the carrier and routing and ship Circadian Light Products freight prepaid. All costs of shipping shall be added to the price of the Circadian Light Products and paid by Purchaser. Circadian may, in its discretion, choose to make partial shipments and shall bill each shipment as it is made, but on terms applicable to the complete order. Circadian may, at its discretion, offer freight allowances for orders in excess certain set prices and/or for orders shipped outside the continental United States. Purchaser shall contact Circadian for the applicable terms and conditions of any freight allowances offered by Circadian. Where Circadian provides such an allowance to Purchaser, Circadian will use its own discretion in routing the shipment. If a more expensive means of transportation or other special delivery requirements are requested by Purchaser, Purchaser assumes and shall pay all additional costs.

Delivery dates of all shipments are estimated and are not guaranteed. The shipment date mentioned on Circadian's quote or order acknowledgement, if any, is Circadian's approximation of a shipment date, and is not a fixed or guaranteed shipment date. Circadian assumes no liability in connection with any delay in delivery. Postponement of deliveries at Purchaser's request, if for a period of more than ten (10) days, will not be permitted unless prior approval is given by an authorized representative of Circadian. Any claims for shortages, losses, or damages sustained in transit shall be made by Purchaser with the carrier and must be documented upon delivery. Upon request, Circadian will provide evidence of delivery of Circadian Light Products to the carrier, but reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee for all proof of delivery requests.

STORAGE

Purchaser shall pay any detention, storage, handling or auxiliary charges assessed by carriers or warehousemen resulting from Purchaser's requirements for special service or Purchaser's failure to accept delivery in a timely manner.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any use of a Circadian Light Product by Purchaser, its agents, employees, contractors or licensees, for any purpose, after delivery thereof, shall constitute acceptance of that Circadian Light Product by Purchaser.
